A meeting over a call
Real neighbors over digital socialization
A walk over a gym
A book over television
Parents over friends
Friends over the world
World over the salvation
Can be the most important goal in life, seemingly.

Spread happiness and love! To Be kind.

Fulfilling the purpose,
Leaving a Legacy,
Happiness
Relationship.

In this world of increasing automation and digitalism, the most important goal for us should be how to focus on our core skill of being humane towards each other.

The most important goal for each person should be to work towards self actualization while rising above the differences of faith by preserving nature and by upholding & practicing higher human values of universal brotherhood, compassion & non violence.

A 360° Transformation...the only distinguishing GOAL which can be achieved by the Human but a distant reality for the millions of creatures on the planet.

For me most important goal is to lead a happy and healthy life. Secondly, live and let live. Help each other and contribute towards the society at large....

Sense of Mental or Emotional Well-being that I define as Happiness or Peace that surpasses All..

To Unleash the potential within you!! Bring out the best version of yourself!!

Make lots of money and have financial freedom, this is going to help in pursuit of happiness

Stay happy & stay motivated to keep others happy and motivated.

Living a life of purpose

Living to their best potential, not just existing.

To Unleash the potential within you!! Bring out the best version of yourself!!.

Peace, rest will fall in place.

Stay focused and create an environment to grow.
